Your Ultimate Guide to the Trafford Centre: A Complete List of Shops

If you are planning a shopping trip in Manchester, the Trafford Centre is likely at the top of your list. This iconic retail and leisure destination is more than just a shopping mall; it is a sprawling complex that blends high-street favourites, luxury brands, and unique dining experiences under one magnificent roof. With its stunning architecture, featuring a huge dome, marble floors, and even a replica of the Titanic's grand staircase, the centre offers a captivating atmosphere that makes every visit memorable. But what truly sets it apart is the sheer breadth of retail options. From cutting-edge fashion to electronics, homeware, and beauty, the Trafford Centre boasts over 200 stores. Whether you are a local resident or a visitor exploring the North West, having a clear list of Trafford Centre shops can help you navigate this retail paradise efficiently. This comprehensive guide provides exactly that—a well-organised directory of the major stores and categories you can expect to find, along with insider tips to enhance your shopping experience.

Why the Trafford Centre Stands Out Among UK Shopping Destinations

Before diving into the alphabetical or categorical listings, it is worth understanding why the Trafford Centre has become a retail landmark. Opened in 1998, the centre quickly established itself as a premier shopping destination in the UK, drawing millions of visitors annually. Its unique blend of mainstream mass-market brands and high-end luxuries means that you can pick up a bargain at Primark and then treat yourself to a premium handbag at Mulberry in the same afternoon. The centre is divided into themed zones—The Orient, The Dome, The Great Hall, and the Festival Village—each with its own distinct character. This thoughtful layout makes it easier to find specific stores while also providing pleasant visual breaks. Additionally, the Trafford Centre is home to one of the largest food courts in Europe, with The Orient offering a stunning array of international cuisines. For those who want to extend their visit, it also includes a 20-screen cinema, an indoor adventure golf course, and a bowling alley, making it a true one-stop destination for both retail and entertainment.

Main Navigation: Understanding the Zones and Key Departments

To help you get the most out of your shopping trip, we have broken down the stores into logical departments. Whether you are looking for the latest fashion trends, the newest tech gadgets, or something for your home, this list of Trafford Centre shops will serve as your roadmap. Note that store availability can change due to new openings or renovations, so it is always a good idea to check the official website for the most up-to-date information before you visit.

Fashion and Apparel: From High Street to Designer Boutiques

Fashion is the beating heart of the Trafford Centre. You will find an extensive selection of department stores and standalone retailers covering all styles and budgets. Below is a representative list of major fashion retailers you can expect to find:

- Department Stores: Selfridges, John Lewis & Partners, Marks & Spencer, Debenhams (formerly, check current status)
- High-Street Favourites: Zara, H&M, Next, Primark, River Island, Mango, Oasis, Warehouse, Topshop (now part of Asos but may have a presence), New Look, BoohooMan, Jack Wills, Superdry

- Premium and Designer: Hugo Boss, Michael Kors, Tommy Hilfiger, Kate Spade New York, Coach, Radley London, BOSS, CK Calvin Klein, Ted Baker, Whistles, Reiss, Jigsaw
- Activewear and Sportswear: Nike, Adidas, JD Sports, Sports Direct, Sweaty Betty, Lululemon, Under Armour, Reebok
- Footwear: Office, Schuh, Kurt Geiger, Clarks, Skechers, Dr. Martens, Rieker, Aldo
- Lingerie and Swimwear: Victoria's Secret, Ann Summers, Bravissimo, M&S Lingerie

This is by no means an exhaustive list, but it captures the variety you can expect. Fashion enthusiasts will appreciate the dedicated space given to both seasonal trends and timeless staples. For example, if you are looking for workwear, you might start at Reiss or Ted Baker, while casual weekend outfits might lead you to Zara or H&M. The Trafford Centre is also known for its regular sales events, particularly the Boxing Day and January sales, when luxury items become more accessible.

Technology and Electronics: Gadgets, Games, and Gizmos

For tech lovers, the Trafford Centre offers a robust selection of electronics stores. Whether you need a new laptop, the latest smartphone, or gaming equipment, you will find dedicated shops staffed by knowledgeable advisors. Key stores in this category include:

- Apple Store: A flagship location with the full range of products and Genius Bar appointments.
- Samsung Store: Dedicated to Samsung's ecosystem, including phones, tablets, and appliances.
- Currys PC World & Carphone Warehouse: A combined mega-store for all major electronics, from washing machines to laptops.
- CeX: A popular second-hand store for pre-owned games, consoles, and tech.
- Game and GAME: Specialist gaming retailers for the latest titles and hardware.
- Virgin Media O2: Mobile phone contracts and broadband deals.

Additionally, some department stores like John Lewis have extensive electronics sections, so you can compare options across multiple retailers. The Trafford Centre also hosts periodic pop-up stores from brands like Dyson or Sonos, so keep an eye on announcements.

Home, Furniture, and Interior Design

If you are in the market for home improvements or stylish decor, the Trafford Centre has a solid selection. Many of the larger department stores have dedicated homeware floors, but there are also standalone specialists. Notable shops include:

- IKEA: While not directly inside the centre, the IKEA store is located right next to the Trafford Centre, easily accessible via a covered walkway or bridge. It is a must-visit for furniture and home accessories.
- John Lewis & Partners: Their home section is extensive, covering furniture, lighting, kitchenware, and textiles.
- Marks & Spencer Home: A dedicated homeware department within the store.
- The White Company: Luxury bed linens, towels, and home fragrance.
- Habitat: Modern furniture and home accessories.
- Cath Kidston: Vintage-style homewares and kitchen linens.
- Zara Home: Trendy decor and bed linens.
- TK Maxx: Discounted homeware finds, from kitchen gadgets to picture frames.

For unique gifts and decorative items, smaller boutiques like Paperchase (if still present) or Scribbler offer cards, stationery, and quirky home accessories.

Beauty, Health, and Personal Care

Beauty enthusiasts will feel at home in the Trafford Centre. You can find everything from drugstore brands to high-end cosmetics and luxury skincare. Key retailers include:

- Boots: A large flagship store with a pharmacy, beauty counter, and extensive gift section.
- Superdrug: Competitor to Boots with own-brand ranges and trending beauty products.
- Jo Malone London: Luxury fragrance and candles.
- L'Occitane: Provençal skincare and body products.
- The Body Shop: Ethically sourced skincare and body butters.
- Molton Brown: High-end bath and body products.
- MAC Cosmetics: Professional makeup and tutorials.
- NYX Professional Makeup: Trendy and affordable cosmetics.
- Kiehl's: Skincare and grooming products.
- Clinique and Estée Lauder: Found in department stores like Selfridges and John Lewis.

Many of these stores offer complimentary makeovers or skincare consultations. It is advisable to book ahead, especially on weekends. The Trafford Centre also has a number of hair salons and spas, such as Toni & Guy and The Beauty Lounge, perfect for a pre-date or event touch-up.

Jewellery and Watches

From affordable fashion jewellery to investment pieces, the Trafford Centre caters to all tastes. Noteworthy stores include:

- Pandora: Customisable charm bracelets and rings.
- Accessorize: On-trend fashion jewellery and bags.
- Claire's: Costume jewellery and ear piercing services.
- Beaverbrooks: Quality watches, engagement rings, and fine jewellery.
- Ernest Jones: Diamond jewellery and premier watch brands.
- H.Samuel: High street jewellery and watches.
- Goldsmiths: Prestigious watch brands like Rolex and TAG Heuer.
- Michael Kors Watches: Available in the dedicated store or through department stores.

For the ultimate luxury, the Trafford Centre's Selfridges has a dedicated fine jewellery hall featuring Cartier, Tiffany & Co., and other high-end brands.

Gifts, Books, and Stationery

If you are looking for a unique present or simply want to browse for inspiration, the following shops are ideal:

- Waterstones: A large bookshop with all genres and a cosy café.
- Scribbler: Funny greeting cards and personalised gifts.
- Paperchase: Stationery, art supplies, and gift wrap (check current status).
- WHSmith: Books, magazines, newspapers, and travel goods.
- The Disney Store: Official merchandise, toys, and collectibles.
- Build-A-Bear Workshop: Interactive stuffed animal experience, great for children.
- Hamleys: Traditional toy shop with an impressive selection.

These stores are always a hit during holiday seasons, and many offer in-store personalisation or gift-wrapping services.

Entertainment and Leisure (Cinema, Bowling, and More)

While not strictly retail shops, the Trafford Centre's entertainment options are integral to the experience. They include:

- AMC Theatres (formerly Odeon): A 20-screen multiplex cinema showing the latest blockbusters, including IMAX and 3D screenings.
- Paradise Island Adventure Golf: Indoor 18-hole golf course set in a tropical theme.
- Tenpin Bowling: Bowling alleys, arcade games, and a sports bar.
- Laser Quest: Multi-level laser tag arena.
- Namco Funscape: A family entertainment centre with arcade games, dodgems, and soft play areas.

Many visitors combine shopping with a movie or a game of bowling, making it an ideal destination for families, groups of friends, or date nights. The centre also hosts seasonal events, such as a Christmas grotto and summer festivals.

Eating at the Trafford Centre: The Orient and Beyond

No list of Trafford Centre shops would be complete without mentioning the dining scene, because shopping is hungry work. The food court, known as The Orient, is a stunningly designed area with a glass ceiling and palatial decor. Here you will find
